

in need. As a volunteer at Beaumont Hospital in Taylor she has given over 180 hours of services to staff and patients in the surgical lounge, radiology, wound care, welcome desk, and bariatric surgery areas.

Her colleagues at Beaumont describe her as kind, compassionate, smart, and hard-working—truly a distinguished young woman. They have no doubt that she will make an immense difference in the lives of her future patients. Even as a busy student, in her spare time she is active in her church, helps children learn to play soccer, and volunteers at a local food distribution center. It is safe to say that Ms. Crockett has a bright future ahead of her and we will all benefit from her drive and passion for helping others.

Madam Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in recognizing Deidre Crockett and in congratulating her for being the recipient of the Distinguished Young Woman Award. We are grateful for her exemplary service to our community in Wayne County and beyond. We join with Deidre's friends, family, and colleagues in thanking her for her hard work and dedication to her field and wish her the best in the future.

CONGRATULATING RABBI MICAH GREENSTEIN

HON. STEVE COHEN

OF TENNESSEE

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Mr. COHEN. Madam Speaker, I rise today to congratulate Rabbi Micah Greenstein of Temple Israel in Memphis for his 30 years leading the historic, 167-year-old congregation.

Rabbi Greenstein is the most recent in a long line of rabbis leading a congregation whose history is entwined with the history of the city of Memphis, from the Civil War and yellow fever epidemic, through both World Wars and the Civil Rights movement.

One of Rabbi Greenstein's predecessors, Rabbi James Wax, led the Memphis Ministerial Association during the Memphis Sanitation Workers strike and the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., in 1968.

Rabbi Greenstein has been instrumental in working with the Memphis Interfaith Coalition for Action and Hope (MICAHA), his namesake, a group dedicated to dealing with social issues and economic and educational disparities in our community. Rabbi Greenstein returned Temple Israel to Midtown Memphis when he dedicated Temple Israel Crosstown, an auxiliary branch in Crosstown Center, an important move for Judaism in Memphis.

Rabbi Greenstein is a great orator and the congregation looks forward to hearing his High Holy Days remarks each year. He is also the Jerry West of rabbis for his ability to select phenomenal cantors and associate rabbis to complement his talents and present an All Star team at Temple Israel, from Rabbi Katie Bauman to Rabbi Bess Wohlner to cantorial soloist Happie Hoffman and many others, including a husband-wife team.

Rabbi Greenstein has brought together Memphis religious leaders addressing Memphis' crime problems and helped calm anxieties after the September 11 terrorist attacks by linking arms with Muslim and Christian leaders. I commend Rabbi Greenstein—my rabbi—for his 30 years of service in Memphis and wish him many more productive years in our community.

RECOGNIZING MR. PATRICK B. LOFTUS ON HIS RETIREMENT

HON. MIKE QUIGLEY

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Mr. QUIGLEY. Madam Speaker, I rise today to join TTX Company CEO, Tom Wells, and his colleagues in honoring Mr. Patrick B. Loftus. Pat recently retired from his position as the company's Senior Vice President, Law and Administration.

Pat's retirement marks the end of a distinguished career as a leader in his company and in the railroad industry, including years as a spokesman and strategist for TTX and the industry here in Washington.

Pat has been with TTX for 35 years, beginning as a litigator when the company was known as Trailer Train, rising to General Counsel in 2001, Corporate Secretary a year later, and assuming his most recent wide-ranging responsibilities as Senior Vice President in 2013.

Pat was a leader in legislative fights for fair competition in surface transportation and spearheaded the company's successful relationship with its regulator, the Surface Transportation Board.

Pat's many friends on Capitol Hill, in the rail industry, and in his company will miss his insight, skills as an advocate, and trademark good humor. We wish Pat all the best.

Madam Speaker, please join me and all our colleagues in the House of Representatives in recognizing Mr. Loftus' years of service and congratulating him on his retirement.

HONORING DON REID

HON. DAN BISHOP

OF NORTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Mr. BISHOP of North Carolina. Madam Speaker, today I rise to honor my good friend Don Reid and to wish him a very happy 90th birthday. Don, a stalwart conservative, served on the Charlotte City Council from 1991 to 1999. There, he established a reputation as a zealous defender of the taxpayer—demanding accountability, asking tough questions, and standing against imprudent and ill-advised big spending projects, even if that meant standing alone. Among those big spending projects: a proposed taxpayer-funded NBA stadium and an expensive light rail system.

Twenty years off the Council, the passage of time has proven Don right again and again. In addition to his service on the Council, Don helped found the watchdog group Citizens for Effective Government and hosted weekly breakfast meetings in Charlotte that were must-attend events for those interested in local politics. Don, you continue to be an important voice on behalf of fiscal responsibility, and Charlotte is grateful for your service. Happy birthday.

HONORING THE LIFE AND SERVICE OF SERGEANT KAILA SULLIVAN

HON. BRIAN BABIN

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Mr. BABIN. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the life and sacrifice of Sergeant Kaila Sullivan, a 16-year veteran of the Nassau Bay Police Department.

On December 10, 2019, Sergeant Kaila Sullivan was killed in the line of duty while assisting an arrest in the Clear Lake area. Her tragic death is a grim reminder that the job of a police officer protecting our streets can be dangerous and deadly, even on the most routine of days, and that our law enforcement officers deserve our gratitude and respect.

Her friends and colleagues remember Kaila as the "rock" of her police force, a hero, and a "peace officer's peace officer." She was an enthusiastic advocate for victims of domestic violence and a natural leader revered by her community. She always strived to excel at her job as a police officer, and her long list of roles within the force reflects that; Sullivan served as a bike patrol instructor, a mental health officer, a field training officer, crime prevention specialist, and Rape Aggression Defense (RAD) instructor in addition to her duties as Sergeant.

But Kaila was not just a police officer. She was a devoted mother and loving wife, a friend to all, and quite the entertainer with "the voice of an angel." She enjoyed playing the guitar, riding horses, and was often seen around town in her overhauled, monster truck-like pickup. She loved hiking, being outdoors, and spending time with her family, but most of all, people remember her being totally dedicated to the community she served.

Sergeant Kaila Sullivan was Nassau Bay Police Department's first death in the line of duty. Her loss continues to reverberate in the Nassau Bay community, as it will for many years.

Madam Speaker, I would like to honor Sergeant Kaila Sullivan and her family for her service. God bless Texas, Nassau Bay, and Sergeant Kaila Sullivan.

RECOGNIZING CARLI LLOYD

HON. ANDY KIM

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Mr. KIM of New Jersey. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize and congratulate Carli Lloyd on her retirement from a sixteen-year international career in professional soccer as a member of the United States Women's National Team.

Carli grew up in Delran, New Jersey, and while she participated in numerous sports, she always gravitated towards soccer. She began playing at 5 years old and quickly excelled as a youth player. Later she even recalled some of her fondest memories were when she played on the Medford Strikers. From the moment she returned home from school, Carli could be found on any patch of grass big enough to kick a ball. Whether she was playing against men in pickup games or with
